Port of Subs Awards Top Performers at 2011 Convention

At the 2011 Port of Subs Convention Awards dinner at Lake Tahoe on September 28, numerous corporate and franchise managers were recognized for their hard work and contribution to the success of the Reno-based restaurant chain.

Among those honored was Kim Finch, managing owner of the location at the Sparks Galleria Shopping Center in Sparks, Nevada. She was awarded Franchisee of the Year for the second year in a row, and her restaurant places in the Top 5 for I Promise points earned.

The Port of Subs I Promise program is based on a commitment to guests, team members and the business to improve and maintain an unsurpassed level of food quality, restaurant cleanliness, training and guest service. Restaurants earn points based on their level of execution in each of these categories.

“Every year we look forward to getting together as a company and having the opportunity to recognize individuals for everything they do to make Port of Subs what it is today,” said Mike Powell, President, Port of Subs, Inc. “Our employees are the backbone of our excellent customer service, and our company’s success would not be possible without them.”

Also honored Wednesday evening was Jim Kibbe of Reno, who tied with Finch for Franchisee of the Year.

Along with Finch and Kibbe, Port of Subs presented awards to the Manager of the Year, stores with the top sales in 2010, and stores celebrating 5, 10 and 20-year anniversaries.

Port of Subs, Inc. is headquartered in Reno, Nevada and currently operates over 140 locations in 7 western states. Now more than 35 years in the business, the sandwich company offers a variety of hot and cold sandwiches, breakfast, sides, beverages and numerous catering items.
